THAW'S SANITY TO BE TESTED

COURT APPOINTS COMMISSION IN LUNACY.

ORDER COMES AS A SURPISE

PRISONER RECEIVES DECISION PHILOSOPHICALLY

HAS NO FEAR AS TO OUTCOME

"Anything Justice Fitzgerald Does Is All Right, Says Thaw—Decision of the Three Disinterested Men Named Will Guide Court.

NEW YORK, March 26.—[illegible] Thaw has never [illegible] more than [illegible] weeks ago [illegible] on the charge [illegible] the first degree. Justice Fitzgerald today unexpectedly ordered a commission in lunacy to inquire into the present state [illegible] of Stanford White's slayer. [illegible] of the three disinterested men named to conduct the inquiry will [illegible] the future action of the court [illegible] ordering Thaw to an asylum or [illegible] directing that the trial shall proceed. Justice Fitzgerald announced the appointment of a commission privately in his chambers. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw is there with the lawyers and [illegible] [illegible] to break the news to her husband [illegible] Tombs. Tearful when [illegible] judges to me in the [illegible] building the young woman is smiling and cheerful [illegible] Thaw [illegible] brought [illegible] the hospital ward [illegible] prise to me [illegible] Thaw received [illegible] decision philosophically and [illegible] had [illegible] doubt the commission [illegible] declare him a sane man.

Personnel of Commission

The commissioners appointed by Justice Fitzgerald are Morgan J. O'Brien, [illegible] of the appellate division [illegible] Peter B. Olney [illegible] of New York [illegible] and Dr. Leopold Putzel [illegible] authority on mental disorders. Former Justice O'Brien [illegible] Grover [illegible] Life Assurance [illegible] [illegible] investigation [illegible] Peter B. Olney [illegible] of New York county [illegible] [illegible] the commission [illegible] revise the laws of the state affecting public interests in New York [illegible] is a graduate of Harvard.

Dr. Putzel is a graduate of Bellevue hospital medical school and has had [illegible] experience in that institution. He qualified before the state medical board as an examiner in lunacy.

The Thaw jury was ordered last Friday to report before Justice Fitzgerald tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock. At that hour there will be a brief court proceeding, the jury being excused indefinitely. Whether or not Thaw will be brought into court remains to be seen. No date has been fixed for the first meeting of the commission. There will probably be some definite announcement on this point tomorrow, however, for the law under which the commissioners were appointed directs that they proceed with their inquiry forthwith.

Justice Fitzgerald said it would rest with the commission as to whether or not its hearings would be made public. In the last case of this sort in this jurisdiction the inquiry into the mental condition of Josefina Terranova, who killed her aunt [illegible] the commission's inquiry was [illegible] The girl was declared sane and subsequently was acquitted by the jury.

Thaw Anxious to Aid Commission

The Thaw commission will be attended by District Attorney Jerome. The lawyers for the defense will also be present and the commission may direct and compel the attendance of any witnesses it may desire. It is probable that Thaw will be asked first of all to submit to a rigid physical examination. Having undergone several of these [illegible] his [illegible] somewhat nervous on this subject, but it was said tonight by his counsel that he would do anything in his power to aid the commission with its work and

PLANS ARE NOW BEING LAID

UPHEAVAL IN COLORADO AND WYOMING EXPECTED

VIOLATORS IN GREAT TERROR

Avalanche of Prosecutions Will Follow Opening of Federal Grand Jury—Storm Which Is Soon to Burst, Has Been Gathering for Five Years

OMAHA, March 26.—Special Assistant Attorney General S. R. Rush, who with Assistant Attorney General Parch will have charge of the land fraud investigations and prosecutions in Colorado and Wyoming, are busily engaged [illegible] their plans of work.

While we can not now name the men [illegible] will be caught in this net there will be big fish," said an official [illegible] with this work. "I can tell you the recent prosecutions in Nebraska which caught such men as Bartlett Richards and W. G. Revelations of a startling nature, involving men of prominence and corporations of great wealth and power, are expected to result from the assembling of the federal grand jury at Cheyenne and the combines and individuals who have been despoiling the public [illegible] of timber and [illegible] [illegible] will [illegible] themselves will find themselves face [illegible] either returning the stolen land and the value of its products, or both coal and timber, or suffer heavy fines and imprisonment as well.

The storm that is to burst has been gathering for upwards of five years and the evidence to be presented is the result of many years of work collecting the material.

Hereafter Denver [illegible] be the headquarters from which will radiate the work of the special attorneys and secret agents under their [illegible] supervision.

BIG SUM FOR COLLEGE

SPRINGS INSTITUTION SHARES ROCKEFELLER FUND.

Will Get $50,000 if It Raises $450,000 Additional—Only Five on First List

Colorado college of this city, together with four other leading colleges of the United States, shares in the first distribution [illegible] general educational board since it received the J. D. Rockefeller donation of $32,000,000 to be divided among deserving colleges of this country. Colorado college is to receive $50,000 cash from the Rockefeller fund on condition that it raise $450,000 additional. Dispatches do not name the time limit attached to this condition. [illegible] however, that the Colorado Springs institution will put [illegible] to fulfill the conditions attached.

The Associated Press dispatch [illegible] distribution of the Rockefeller fund came over the wire [illegible] this (Wednesday) morning and owing to the lateness of the hour President Slocum of the college could not be seen.

The fund to which the Rockefeller fund has been intrusted met yesterday in New York, when conditional gifts totaling $650,000 were made to five educational institutions. The [illegible] was divided as follows: Yale university, $300,000; Princeton university, $200,000; Bowdoin college, Brunswick, Me., $50,000; Colorado college, Colorado Springs, $50,000; Millsaps college, Jackson, Miss., $25,000.

After making these appropriations, the board voted to give a total of $42,500 to colored schools, the names of which were not made public lest the help of the board should tend to discourage gifts to the schools from other sources.

With the five principal gifts is the condition that the institution shall raise a specified sum of which the board's appropriation shall be a part. Yale and Princeton are each to raise $2,000,000; Colorado college, $500,000; Bowdoin, $250,000, and Millsaps, $100,000. These subscriptions were decided upon after the board had considered applications from about 400 institutions. Further distributions it was stated would be made before long.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

JUDGE MORRIS GRANTS GANG ORGAN'S PETITION.

Telegraph May Now Print Official Tickets, for "Money Cuts No Figure"

Despite the fact that it was shown that the Telegraph's charge for printing the official ballot for election is approximately $110 more than the contract rate which is allowed by The Gazette and is a usual concession in such cases, Judge W. S. Morris in the district court yesterday morning issued a writ of mandamus compelling City Clerk MacMillan to publish the ballot in the Telegraph.

This action was taken because of the alleged advocacy of the principles of the Republican party by the Telegraph, although the evidence brought out several facts in direct conflict with this presumption.

Judge W. S. Morris, who ordered the writ of mandamus to issue, was nominated for his present office by the Republican gang convention last November, this same gang now being in control of the Republican city organization.

Important Evidence Eliminated

Although the law specifies as the proper newspaper to publish the list of nominations that which advocates the principles of the leading political parties, the court cut out all evidence relating to the principles of the two papers and narrowed it down to a mere question of the support of the Republican gang ticket. Evidence strong and certain was submitted to prove that the Telegraph is advocating the election of the Republican gang ticket. Of evidence relating to its advocacy of Republican PRINCIPLES, however, there was not the slightest trace.

C. F. Yeager, president and general manager of the paper, admitted on the stand that after he took charge one year and 11 days ago he printed a salutatory proclaiming in large glaring type that the Telegraph was an independent newspaper.

The Public Deceived

The paper boasted continually of its growing circulation, its increasing advertising business and its prestige as a result of its independence. Subscribers were solicited and business sought on the ground that the Telegraph was an independent paper. Its news items have teemed with references to the independence of the Telegraph ever since the assumption of management by Mr. Yeager.

All this continued until March 4, 1907, exactly nine days before the Republican city convention, when the line "An Independent Newspaper," which had been run continually at the head of the editorial columns, suddenly disappeared. The display type which had seen continuous service for a year was put out of commission. Many are Republicans from conviction, others for revenue only—the Telegraph suddenly became Republican for revenue only. No notice was given the people that the paper was no longer independent and many supposed it to be still in that felicitous state. In fact the city clerk, not noticing the absence of the independence sign, thought the paper to be still running its business under the old banner.

They Did Not Know

A peculiar feature of yesterday's hearing lies in the fact that of the two witnesses summoned by the Telegraph to prove that it advocates Republican principles, neither was able to tell what those principles are. Attorney S. H. Kinsley, acting for the Telegraph, objected strenuously when Attorney G. M. Irwin, representing the city clerk, asked the two witnesses,

ARBOR DAY PROCLAMATION.

Governor Buchtel Calls for Observance by Planting Trees

DENVER, March 26.—Governor Buchtel today issued a proclamation calling for the observance of Arbor day, which is the third Friday in April. It falls this year on April 19. The proclamation reads:

I heartily recommend to all the people of the state, to all professors and students in educational institutions and to all teachers and pupils in the public schools that the day be observed in the manner contemplated by the law. Special attention is directed to the advice in the law that the actual planting of trees shall be done at such convenient time as may best conform to local climatic conditions. The entire month of April should therefore be recognized as the month for the planting of trees in Colorado.

Business, Not Politics.

From the Colorado Springs Evening Telegraph, January 21, 1906.

A movement for a non-partisan city government in Colorado Springs is distinctly a step in the right direction.

MEN SHOULD BE ELECTED TO RUN THE AFFAIRS OF THIS CITY, NOT AS PARTISANS, BUT AS BUSINESS MEN OF ABILITY AND GOOD CHARACTER. THEIR POLITICAL AFFILIATIONS SHOULD NOT BE TAKEN INTO CONSIDERATION ANY MORE THAN THEIR CHURCH AFFILIATIONS.

The only argument that can be advanced against a non-partisan government is that of responsibility. The politicians say, "If you elect members of one party, the party is responsible for the good conduct of its office-holders."

But is that a valid objection to non-partisan city government? AND HAS THE PARTY RISEN TO ITS RESPONSIBILITIES IN RECENT ELECTIONS? A REVIEW OF THE MANY BREACHES OF TRUST WHICH HAVE OCCURRED IN THE CITY GOVERNMENT OF COLORADO SPRINGS INDICATES TO ANY UNPREJUDICED OBSERVER THAT THEY HAVE BEEN DUE TO NARROW AND MISTAKEN PARTISANSHIP MORE THAN TO ANYTHING ELSE. MEN HAVE BEEN SELECTED FOR OFFICE BECAUSE OF THEIR ABILITY AS PARTY WORKERS RATHER THAN FOR THEIR ABILITY TO PERFORM THEIR DUTIES PROPERLY. MOREOVER THEY ARE BOUND TO GET THE IMPRESSION THAT SO LONG AS THEY ARE FAITHFUL TO THE PARTY RATHER THAN TO THE TAXPAYERS THEY ARE SURE OF THEIR PLACES.

The time has come in the life of this city when its city government should be conducted from the standpoint of business rather than politics. If an official proves recreant to the trust reposed in him he should not be tolerated in office for a moment. If a mayor and a city council are elected as business men, rather than as partisans, they will have no excuse and will need no excuse for placing incompetent men in office or for retaining them after they are put there.

The condition of the city taxes, increasing steadily instead of diminishing, as they ought to as the town grows larger, makes the question a very serious one which should come right home to the door of every citizen.

WHAT WE WANT IS AN HONEST, CAPABLE, BUSINESSLIKE ADMINISTRATION, WHERE FITNESS SHALL BE THE CRITERION FOR OFFICEHOLDING AND NOT PARTISANSHIP.

It can be done. It is being done in [illegible] of municipalities which are larger than this, and it ought to be done in Colorado Springs.

NO NEW INDICTMENTS

GRAND JURY HOLDS SHORT SESSION IN FRISCO.

No New Lines of Information Opened Up by Day's Investigation—Evidence Is Clinched

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—The grand jurors' investigation of bribery and graft in San Francisco resulted in the finding of no new indictments today. But [illegible] session [illegible] lasting from 2 o'clock until [illegible] At its conclusion District Attorney Langdon said:

"No new lines of information were opened up by today's investigation, but from the witnesses examined we elicited information of certain facts tending to connect [illegible] links in the chain of evidence showing bribery of San Francisco officials by the Home Telephone company."

Assistant District Attorney Heney said: "We were over ten ground today, but purely for the purpose of clinching evidence already adduced."

The witnesses examined before the grand jury at this afternoon's session were John M. [illegible], [illegible] of Los Angeles, formerly president and now a director of the Home Telephone company of this city; John Vanllen of Oakland, connected with the Empire Construction company of California, the corporation said to have been organized by the telephone company to handle the getting of the local franchise in [illegible] obtaining the after concern is charged with having spent approximately $300,000 in bribes in addition to the $[illegible] paid to the city and the $[illegible] paid into the earthquake fire relief fund; L. G. Burpee, vice president of the First National bank of Oakland; Nicholas Pringle gast, of Los Angeles, [illegible] the criminal promoters of the Home Telephone company of that city; J. C. Reardon, chief clerk of the Central bank of Oakland, and Miss Nellie Smith, stenographer to the firm of Gerstle, Fisk and Deedy of San Francisco.

Some of these witnesses will be recalled at tomorrow's session for further examination. Other witnesses who were on hand but were not called before the inquisitorial body today were Percy C. Morgan of the California Wine Growers' association, a member of the Home Telephone company; J. S. Parkhurst of Los Angeles and George Bernston of the bookkeeping department of the Pacific States Telephone company.

Attorneys for Ruef who for months have been fighting the trial of their client by Superior Judge Dunne today changed their tactics and fought for the privilege of going to trial at once on the five extortion charges brought against him by the grand jury. The prosecution desired a week's continuance, however, in order to proceed in the interim with the bribery investigation being conducted by the grand jury and this continuance was granted. Judge Dunne refused to accede to the request by the defense that Elisor Biggy be ordered to hold Ruef in less strict custody.

ASKS FOR INVESTIGATION

Spokane Wants Fire Insurance Companies of the West Probed

SPOKANE, Wash., March 26.—The Spokane chamber of commerce has drafted a petition calling on President Roosevelt to cause an investigation of the methods of fire insurance companies, especially in the western states. The petition asserts that only 40 to 50 per cent of the millions collected are actually paid for fire losses, the remainder going to swell the profits of stockholders and to pay padded salaries, bats and unreasonable expenses and that the companies have combined to fix excessive and arbitrary rates from which there is practically no appeal.

SENATE IS FAR BEHIND HOUSE

LAST DAYS ARE CROWDED BY DILATORY TACTICS.

MAJORITY LACKS FLOOR LEADER

IMPORTANT MATTERS MAY FALL BY THE WAYSIDE

"CUT-OFF" TIME HAS ARRIVED

Neither House Will Consider Any of Its Own Bills on Second Reading—Each to Take Up Measures of Other Body for Consideration

Special to the Gazette.

DENVER, March 26.—One stage of legislation was completed [illegible] this time to the [illegible] of the Sixteenth general assembly [illegible] neither house will consider any of its own bills on second reading. This is in accordance with an agreement reached last week setting Tuesday as the time for each house to stop on its own measures and take up those of the other house.

The house of representatives cleaned up its calendar pretty thoroughly before the cut off time came. Most of the bills of any moment or that stood the least chance of being made into laws had passed out of [illegible] hands some days ago. Only two of importance were left and against each of these was arrived an opposition [illegible] [illegible] One was the legislative [illegible] apportionment bill that had proven unsatisfactory to the Denver delegation and the other was the proposed revision of the law governing the state National guard.

Though the first of these was given one killing some ten days ago it had been revived on a suggestion that amendments might be made that would make it agreeable to the Denver [illegible] But today a report was circulated that the bill had secured friends enough outside of Denver to make its adoption possible. The military bill proposed an abolition of the brigade formation in the guard, a means taken for legislating out of office the present brigadier general, who is a Democrat. Friends of the commanding officer of the guard, among them many Republicans, fiercely opposed the measure.

Decide Against Night Sessions

The imminent passage of these two bills created something of a furore in the house at the close of the afternoon session. Rather than risk a night meeting the Denver representatives united with the Conejos representatives and the Democrats to adjourn over to tomorrow, thus preventing any night discussion of house bills.

The senate approaches its last period [illegible] had [illegible] calendar crowded with important and long bills sent over from the house. It has six days in which to pass about 150 house bills and that presumes that it will hold sessions on Sunday. Among these bills are the long school enactment, for [illegible] department and for a new

He will discuss the saloon question as well as municipal government. Other speakers prominent men of this city will also address the gathering. Every citizen, whether a voter or not, is invited to attend this meeting, which [illegible] promises to be one of the greatest and most enthusiastic ever held in Colorado Springs.

Mr. Rutledge was brought to Colorado by the State Anti-saloon league and will lecture in Boulder tomorrow night. At Canon City he will give three lectures. He has been a popular public lecturer for several years and has filled hundreds of dates before Chautauqua assemblies, camp meetings, lodges and public gatherings of all kinds. Rare it is to have such an address. He seems a perfect fountain of wit and wisdom, eloquence and pathos. No one can hear such a man without being the better and brighter for it. May such pleasure be ours again."

CAPITAL IS IN FEAR OF ATTACK

ROUMANIA UPRISING GROWS MORE SERIOUS.

NOW LOOKS LIKE CIVIL WAR

TROUBLE EXTENDS THROUGHOUT ENTIRE COUNTRY

PEASANTS ARE ON WARPATH

Serious Engagement Occurs at Alexandria Where Sixty Are Killed and Many Wounded—Districts of Teleorman and Vlashka Pillaged

VIENNA, March 26.—The rising of the peasants in Roumania is assuming the proportions of civil war. It was [illegible] directed against the Jews, but now [illegible] against the Christian [illegible] The trouble now extends from one end of Roumania to the other and even the capital, Bucharest, is in fear of an attack. Reports of sanguinary encounters received each day show the disorders to be more deep seated and far reaching and the situation [illegible] serious.

There was sanguinary fighting in the streets of Petresoia today when 2,000 peasants led by three students entered the city and sacked and destroyed many buildings, including the palace of Prince Stirbey.

In the districts of Teleorman and Vlashka [illegible] landed proprietors have been killed and [illegible] villages have been burned.

Sixty Men Killed

Probably the most serious engagement occurred at Alexandria, about 50 miles from Bucharest, where sixty men were killed and 300 wounded before the troops succeeded in dispersing the rioters.

Four thousand peasants are marching on Bucharest. Reinforcements have been concentrated at the capital, the royal palace is protected by artillery and [illegible] have been issued to use shrapnel to prevent revolting peasants from invading the city. The movement has extended through the entire province of Wallachia and almost every hour brings a report of a more or less bloody encounter between the military and the peasants in some fresh locality. In the district of Zimnitcea a number of farms, most of them belonging to Roumanians, have been plundered and it is expected that the towns of Zant and Zimnitcea have been pillaged.

Alexandria in Uproar

The district of Alexandria, southwest of Bucharest, is in an uproar. The peasants are pillaging the shops and the merchants and their clerks are arming themselves to protect their lives and property.

The latest report declares that Giurgevo on the Danube and forty miles south of Bucharest is in a state of indescribable panic.

The authorities are doing everything [illegible] reinforcements are being moved rapidly into the troublesome district.

A dispatch received [illegible] frontier of Roumania says the advance of the riotous peasants on Bucharest continues. Up to the present time it has been found impossible to divert them. There is great alarm in the Roumanian capital. The garrisons in eighteen of the forts forming the defense of the city have been increased and the royal palace, where King Carol and Queen [illegible] strongly [illegible]

BUCHAREST, Roumania, March 26.—Four thousand peasants [illegible] the districts of Teleorman and Vlashka have joined forces and are now marching on Bucharest. A minor state of siege has been proclaimed [illegible] measures to prevent the peasants from invading [illegible] [illegible] orders have been issued [illegible] shrapnel against them.

Soldiers and police have been [illegible] the Jewish quarters of Bucharest for the protection of the inhabitants.

Severe [illegible] reported from various places. The rioting usually appears [illegible] synagogues winding up with attacks on Christians' property.

The district of Vlashka is overrun by marauders who have cut the telegraph and telephone wires.

How the Present Administration Have Handled the City's Finances.

The Republican administration went out of office April 1903 leaving a deficit of over $50,000. The present Nonpartisan administration [illegible] next month not only with the [illegible] deficit of the Republican administration wiped out, but also leaving a surplus of about $20,000 in the treasury.

In June 1903 when the Republican administration was in power, the city bonds sold at 3½ per cent below par.

In April 1906, after [illegible] of Nonpartisan [illegible] the city bonds sold at a premium of 2.3 of 1 per cent above par, a gain of 4.1.6 per cent.

that he hoped for an early opinion as to his sanity

Thaw's lawyers and the defendant himself were downcast when they were first made acquainted with the judge's decision but all were manifestly pleased when the later announcement as to the personnel of the committee was made Mr Delmas in particular declared that Justice Fitzgerald could hardly have selected a more satisfactory commission District Attorney Jerome seemed pleased at the result of his efforts

In announcing his decision to lay to appoint a commission Justice Fitzgerald read [illegible] He based his decision on the conflict of affidavits as presented by the opposing sides saying they were too diametrically at odds to permit of a decision other than in favor of an impartial inquiry The memorandum reads

I do therefore in pursuance of the statute in such cases made and provided hereby appoint Morgan J O Brien Peter B Olney and Leopold Putzel three disinterested persons a commission forthwith to examine into the mental condition of said Harry K Thaw and to report to the court with all convenient speed the facts and their opinions as to whether at the time of such examination the said Harry K Thaw was in such state of idiocy imbecility and lunacy or insanity so as to be incapable of rightly understanding his own condition the nature of the charge against him and of conducting his defense in a rational manner

"Could Not Have Been Worse"

As Messrs Hartridge O Reilly Peabody Delmas Gleason and McPike the six Thaw attorneys left the judge's chambers one of them was heard to remark

It could not be worse

Later however the attorneys seemed to take a brighter view Mr Hartridge said

We did not expect a decision of any sort today much less the one that was rendered We had hoped the trial might go on without further interruption The commission will mean considerable delay Now that the decision has been rendered however it is hard to see how Justice Fitzgerald could have done otherwise Of course there was a conflict of affidavits and he cannot understand how firmly Thaw's counsel believe in his sanity

Messrs Hartridge and O Reilly went with Mrs Evelyn Thaw to the Tombs and there in the hospital ward they met the prisoner It is all right dearie he said to his wife I am not afraid of a commission I am a sane man now just as sane as the judge himself and I am sure that any fair minded commission will so declare me band of 2,000 peasants yesterday made a furious attack with hatchets and cudgels on a detachment of cavalry in that district The troops only dispersed the rioters after killing or wounding many of them

Fifteen rioters have been shot in the town of Alexandria Wallachia, about fifty miles from Bucharest which place has been declared under martial law

At Kalitz Moldavia a mob of peasants raided the town demanding the land and wrecking houses Troops fired upon the mob and killed fifteen of the rioters

A panic prevailed at Giurgevo opposite Rustchuk forty miles from Bucharest from whence urgent demands for reinforcements of troops have reached the city

FORAKER HAS VISIONS

SEES PRESIDENTIAL CHAIR IN DIM DISTANCE.

Will Not Concede That Secretary Taft Is Ohio's Choice—Favors Calling Primary Election.

WASHINGTON March 26—That Senator Foraker does not concede that Secretary Taft will be Ohio's choice for the presidential nomination is made plain by a statement issued by the senator tonight Senator Foraker says that he does not want an political honors from the people of Ohio without their hearty approval and he suggests that the proper way to determine who is the choice of the people to head the Republican national ticket and to represent the state in the United States senate is for the Republican state executive committee to authorize a primary election to choose delegates to the state convention which will be called upon to determine these questions

The announcement of State Superintendent of Insurance Arthur I Vorys that he will support Secretary Taft for the presidential nomination led Senator Foraker it is believed to issue the statement outlining his position The senator declares he is willing to go before the people on his record and that he has nothing to conceal from his constituents

Mr Foraker does not say that he will be a candidate to succeed President Roosevelt but it is generally understood among his friends in Washington that at a later date he will formally announce his candidacy and that if the primary election is called in Ohio he will enter the fight to secure the indorsement of his own state

Senator Foraker in his statement says

I have been so busily occupied that I have neither had time nor disposition to even think about politics either state or national and especially politics that belong to next year It seems to me premature to be now discussing what is so far ahead However in view of the interviews and announcements appearing in the [illegible] I feel it my duty with propriety [illegible] I do not want any political honors from the Republicans of Ohio without their hearty approval In order that there may be no doubt as to their preference I shall at the proper time request the Republican state central committee to issue a call for a Republican state convention to be composed of delegates elected by the Republicans of the state at duly authorized primary elections for the purpose not only of nominating candidates for state offices to be voted for at our next state election but also to determine the preference of the Republicans of Ohio as to candidates for United States senator and president

If this suggestion should meet with favor it should be provided that the primary elections shall be held at a convenient time long enough after the call has been issued to enable all who are interested in the work of the convention to appear before the people and discuss the public questions involved so that the people may act intelligently in the selection of their delegates thus bringing this selection as nearly to a direct popular vote as is possible under the laws now in force I have no opinions to conceal from my constituents and there is no point in my public record as to which I am not ready to render them a full account

Dilatory Tactics in Senate

That the senate can make headway at this rate is extremely doubtful, more in the light of recent history it appears impossible The majority lacks a floor leader capable of forcing matters along when the minority proves obstreperous For instance two days have been required to kill the bill providing for a normal school at Trinidad, Most of the time of those days was taken up by Democratic senators in obstructionary tactics Senator Clayton addressed the senate nineteen times on Monday evidently being after the record made by Senator Patterson in the United States senate

Today the senate killed the Trinidad bill already referred to, and passed the general appropriation bill making a few amendments in the latter Among bills that got through third reading were De La Vergne's measure for the beginnings for a state mining temple, making county treasurers ineligible for the office after two terms creating public water works districts granting right of eminent domain to tunnel companies limiting the time for filing wills for probate to punish of burglars by explosive for an inspector of building and loan associations appropriating $300 to pay for the Stratton investigation to instruct legislators for whom to vote in electing United States senators

The senate has made a special order for this morning of H B 100 known as the antifusion bill requiring that a candidate for office may be the nominee of one party only

A long discussion came in the house today over an bill to limit county tax levies The bill was designed members claimed to force the counties to pay larger sums into the state treasury Mr Breckenridge led the opposition, saying that it was introduced on behalf of the state institutions that desired a larger revenue from the state He held that Colorado cared for all its public institutions as well as any other state in the Union and that they did not need the access of funds that each legislature was importuned to give them The bill was killed

OPERA HOUSE ATTRACTIONS

What the Press Agents Say

AL. FIELD'S MINSTRELS AT THE OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT

An offering of drunks by the Al. G. Field greater minstrels, who are to be seen at the Opera house this evening. A feature of the first part that is an innovation in minstrelsy is the "Gridiron Club" burlesque. The Gridiron club of Washington, the membership of which is made up of the correspondents of all the leading newspapers of the world, gives one or more banquets each session of congress, characterizing individuals and measures that figure in the political life of today. This is the theme upon which a feature of the Al. G. Field greater minstrels has been founded. The banquet is treated in a farcial manner and the opportunities offered for the introduction of real burlesque can only be fully appreciated in seeing it. Lively music, appropriate to the festivities, is intermingled in the fun making.

The manner in which the weighty national and international questions have been treated by the Gridiron club of Washington has brought universal fame to the organization. The minstrel counterpart of the original will not attempt to satirize the persons of note and the events of the day as keenly as do the sketches and character impersonations introduced by the originals at their annual "feasts of fame." But that the minstrel burlesque upon the Gridiron club will be a banquet of fun is a foregone conclusion. It is a merry melange of mirth and music. The magnificence of its scenic establishments, costuming and beautiful electrical effects is something to marvel at. A maze of memorable mimetic scenes. A glance at many faces and places in the national capital. All the notables of the day roasted and toasted. Every feature is entirely new to the minstrel and overflowing with comedy and music.

"THE FAST MAIL"

"The Fast Mail" will be the attraction at the Opera house on next Saturday, matinee and night.

This season the piece has an entirely new scenic equipment. The two trains used were built from the original drawings furnished by Mr. George J. Charlton, general passenger agent of the Chicago & Alton railroad, and are exact reproductions of the Kansas City Hummer and one of their crack freight trains. The locomotives are full sized, and are run with regulation steam boilers tested by the boiler inspector in Chicago. The freight trains consists of 40 box cars, engine and caboose. The mail train consists of a full vestibule equipment. Several railroad men who recently witnessed the performance in Chicago said the trains were so real that they started to walk on the stage and go to work. The steamboat used in the great explosion scene was designed from the Robert E. Lee of Mississippi river fame. The Niagara Falls scene is the most realistic ever seen on the stage. An excellent company has been engaged.

"WE ARE KING"

Mr. Lawrence Evart will appear at the Opera house Monday evening in Mr. Walker Whiteside's greatest comedy success, "We Are King." This comedy not only added to Mr. Whiteside's reputation as an artist, but has secured for itself a place in the hearts of all lovers of good entertainment. Upon the announcement that Mr. Whiteside would appear in a new play, "The Magic Melody," the requests for "We Are King" were so numerous and urgent that the management decided to send it on tour with Mr. Lawrence Evart as Gustavus Venner. Mr. Evart needs no introduction as he is no doubt pleasantly remembered by thousands who have witnessed his artistic performances the past five seasons as Mr. Whiteside's leading man. Many of the original cast have been secured to support Mr. Evart, and the production will be complete in every detail.

"THE UMPIRE"

This season's most pretentious theatrical offering will undoubtedly be "The Umpire," which is due to reach the Opera house on next Wednesday. It will be remembered that this is the musical comedy which played here with all the long-run records in Chicago last season, having been performed something like 350 times without interruption, and with the public at the close of the engagement clamoring for more. Several musical features of merit are claimed for "The Umpire," among them being the timely nature of its several themes—baseball, football, grafts, politics, diplomacy and other topics of current interest, to say nothing of a blithe little romance that fairly sings its way through the piece. There is a strong dramatic plot, a rapid fire system of comedy, any quantity of the music that the people like, and an excellent cast of comedians and dancing and singing girls. The production, being under the direction of Manager Harry Askin of the Grand Opera house, Chicago, a more than adequate of scenery and costumes is assured.

AILING WOMEN

How Many Perfectly Well Women Do You Know?

MISS GRACE E. MILLER MRS. W. S. FORD

"I am not feeling very well." "I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly." "My backaches as though it would break."

How often do you hear these significant expressions from women friends. More than likely you speak the same words yourself, and there is a cause.

More than thirty years ago Lydia E. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass. discovered the source of nearly all the suffering endured by her sex. "Woman's Ills," these two words are full of more misery to women than any other two words that can be found in the English language. Sudden fainting, depression of spirits, reluctance to go anywhere, backaches, headaches, nervousness, sleeplessness, bearing-down sensations, displacements and irregularities are the bane of woman's existence.

The same woman who discovered the cause of all this misery also discovered a remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from native roots and herbs holds the record for a greater number of absolute cures of female ills than any other one remedy the world has ever known and it is the greatest blessing which ever came into the lives of suffering women.

Don't try to endure, but cure the cause of all your suffering. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. The following letters prove this:

Mrs. W. S. Ford of 1038 Lansdowne St., Baltimore, Md. writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"For four years my life was a misery to me. I suffered from irregularities, suppression, terrible dragging sensations and extreme nervousness. I had given up all hope of ever being well again, when Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended. It cured my weakness and made me well and strong."

Miss Grace E. Miller, of 1213 Michigan St., Buffalo, N. Y. writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I was in a very bad condition of health generally; irritable, cross, backache, and suffered from a feminine ailment. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me after all other medicines had failed."

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ford and Miss Miller it will do for other women in like condition. Every suffering woman in the United States is asked to accept the following invitation. It is free, will bring you health and may save your life.

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

A big delegation from the Denver lodges will be here headed by Grand Chancellor W. B. Warner, who will be a speaker at the banquet. NEWS OF THE LOCAL COURTS

Judson Briggs, aged 17, and Henry Orr, his stepfather, both colored, were arrested yesterday charged with disorderly conduct. Briggs lives with his mother and stepfather on Costilla street, and yesterday, according to his story to the police, took the part of his mother, who, he alleges, was being horsewhipped by Orr. The two men engaged in a fist fight which was stopped by the arrival of the police. Both men will appear in the police court this morning.

In the district court yesterday Judge W. S. Morris issued three alternative writs of mandamus against City Clerk Frank Baker and Assistant Clerk H. C. Kinsman, both of Colorado City, at the instance of several petitioners representing three political parties of that city.

The three cases will be heard in court at 7 o'clock this evening, when the respondent clerks will appear and show cause why they shall not accept the filing of several nominations on the various tickets. The petitioners are W. P. Epperson, F. F. Schreiber, J. F. Morgan, G. G. Birdsall, J. B. Sims, C. M. Sherman, E. W. Rettiger, J. P. Bates and A. J. Russell.

RAILROAD STRIKE IMPROBABLE

Differences, It Is Believed, Will Be Settled Without Resorting to Extreme Measure.

CHICAGO, March 26.—No progress was made today toward reaching a settlement of the controversy between the western railroads and their employes, who voted to strike unless certain demands were complied with by the general managers. A committee representing the men met the general managers today and submitted the result of the vote.

While nothing official was given out, it was stated by those in authority that no definite basis for a settlement was reached at the meeting. Another conference has been arranged for tomorrow.

While both opposing interests on the surface appear to be determined not to concede anything, it is the general belief that the trouble will be settled without a strike.

A New York young woman, a graduate of one of the city's art schools, was very much amused last week when a salesman in a Broadway shop tried to sell her a vase of her own decoration, explaining the high price by saying it was "imported and the work of a noted French artist."

"What I can't understand," said Mrs. Doolittle, "is why Nicaragua and Honduras went to war in the first place."

CHARGE NOT SUSTAINED

Men Arrested for Gambling Are Acquitted.

The trial of Fred Julius, owner of the Hiawatha saloon, "Dust" McCarthy, a bartender; John Daugrity, a saloon keeper; Dave Rettiger, a bartender in the Hiawatha saloon; M. L. Chase, a laborer, and Fred R. Wilbur, a blacksmith, who were arrested last Saturday night above the Hiawatha saloon, in Colorado City, on a charge of gambling, was held before Police Judge Faulkner yesterday afternoon and a verdict of acquittal was given.

Officers Bert Webb and Joe Bryant, who made the arrests, appeared for the prosecution. Webb testified that the arrests were made at 1:25 Sunday morning. It was shown that Webb and Bryant went to the back of the Hiawatha saloon, Webb went to the back steps and found the back door locked. In the meantime a man left the upper room coming down the back stairs. Webb at once went up the stairs and was admitted by Lee Boyler, a bartender of the Hiawatha saloon. Webb saw the men seated around a table, on which were cards, money and poker chips. He also heard M. L. Chase say: "What are we going to do with this hand?" Fred Julius replied: "Let's play it out." They did play out the hand and it was won on a "straight" by Julius. Julius also had a $5 bill under his pile of chips. Webb at once called Bryant up the stairs and the arrests were made. Bryant saw the chips being counted and Lee Boyler took down the amounts on a tablet.

Bryant testified that he saw the men seated around a table, counting chips and playing cards, but he could not say what kind of a game they were playing.

The defense claimed that they were playing a game of "hearts" and that no money was used during the game.

Claud V. Jordan and Charles Bright of Colorado City, who were arrested Monday morning charged with the theft of about $300 in cash, drafts and checks from the person of W. F. Johns, proprietor of the Hiawatha saloon, will have a hearing before Police Judge Faulkner this afternoon.

The wind did little damage in Colorado City yesterday. A new awning at the A. W. Clark jewelry store was blown down and a large window in the J. A. Foote store was broken.

Trust to Nature.

A great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny with poor circulation, because they have ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to home, office or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, in fact in every weary, thin and thin-blooded person, do their work with great difficulty. As a result fatigue comes early, is extreme and lasts long. The demand for nutritive aid is ahead of the supply. To insure perfect health every tissue, bone, nerve and muscle should take from the blood certain materials and return to it certain others. It is necessary to prepare the stomach for the work of taking up from the food what is necessary to make good, rich, red blood. We must go to Nature for the remedy. There were certain roots known to the Indians of this country before the advent of the white which later came to the knowledge of the settlers and which are now growing rapidly in professional favor for the cure of obstinate stomach and liver troubles. These are found to be safe and yet certain in their cleansing and invigorating effect upon the stomach, liver and blood. These are: Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Bloodroot, Mandrake root. Then there is Black Cherrybark. The medicinal principles residing in these native roots when extracted with glycerine as a solvent make the most reliable and efficient stomach tonic and liver invigorator, when combined in just the right proportions, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Where there is bankrupt vitality—such as nervous exhaustion, bad nutrition—and thin blood, the body acquires vigor and the nerves, blood and all the tissues feel the favorable effect of this sovereign remedy.

Although some physicians have been aware of the high medicinal value of the above mentioned plants, yet few have used pure glycerine as a solvent and usually the doctors' prescriptions call for the ingredients in varying amounts with alcohol.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is a scientific preparation compounded of the glycerin extracts of the above mentioned vegetable ingredients and contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH [illegible]

What President Roosevelt Says About Non-Partisan City Government.

"The worst evils that affect our local government arise from, and are the inevitable result of, the mixing up of city affairs with party politics of the nation and state. The lines upon which national parties divide have no necessary connection with the business of the city. Such connections open the way to countless schemes of public plunder and civil corruption."—Theodore Roosevelt.

THE FIRST PERSON, SINGULAR, IN THE SEVENTH WARD.

SOME collector of literary curios has sent to this office a circular letter addressed "To the Voters of the Seventh Ward" by the Hon. A. M. Holden, for two terms the more or less worthy representative in the Council of that section of the city, and now a candidate for re-election on the Republican ticket. [illegible] people in Colorado Springs [illegible] through failure to attend the Council meetings [illegible] permitted to enjoy the [illegible] Holden there [illegible] he is the gentleman who [illegible] the Republican convention [illegible] believe perfectly just—that one of the ballot boxes had been stuffed [illegible] in the primaries. However in his present epistle to the voters of his ward Mr. Holden makes no mention of this incident. He is the [illegible] candidate [illegible] you know, and it would not be good form [illegible] the discourteous way in which his [illegible] matter put him out of the running [illegible] 1907.

The thing about this letter that especially pleases us is the frank naivete which impels Mr. Holden to thrust forward his own charming personality. [illegible] the overwhelming value of his own magnificent services to the W[illegible] It would simply be impossible for Mr. Holden, even with his splendid literary skill to give his constituents a fair idea of the extent of these services without putting in a few dozen capital I's. [illegible] polished period "I have not done all that I would have liked to have done for you, but I have done all that I could under the circumstances."

There's the whole situation in a nutshell. No man is perfect, no man is omnipotent. Even Napoleon had his limitations, so has the Czar, so has Roosevelt, so has Holden. The Alderman from the Seventh Ward gives an account of his stewardship and with becoming modesty he takes unto himself credit for everything good that has happened on the West Side since the days of Lieutenant Pike. It reminds us of the famous inscription on a certain tombstone somewhere in Arizona: "Bill Smith. He done his damndest. Angels could do no more."

THE TALE OF THE HOLDEN DUMP. To those unacquainted with the breadth and scope of Mr. Holden's genius and his clear insight and firm grasp of public affairs it may seem rather odd that while he claims credit for all of the improvements that have been made on the West Side during the last four years, he holds Mayor Hall and Street Commissioner G[illegible] responsible for all adverse occurrences and conditions. But Mr. Holden is unquestionably right about it. He has investigated the matter thoroughly and dispassionately and found that both of these officials are "agin" him.

Take the case of Gray, for example. He [illegible] the [illegible] on both sides of West Huerfano Street from the viaduct to the top of the hill into a city dump. [illegible] But just [illegible] the Holden Dump [illegible] the [illegible] Street Commissioner [illegible] the scheme. [illegible] the dump. [illegible] formulated by the author of the dump for the beautification of the West Side by the judicious distribution of ashes and tin cans.

Is it any wonder that the master mind of the Seventh Ward, after confessing that he "has not done all that he would have liked to have done," [illegible] should be remembered that I have had to do with the [illegible] Mayor [illegible] Commissioner [illegible] and all improvements on the West Side. We do not know just what Mayor Hall's share in the destruction of the Holden Dump was, but we are sure that he was [illegible] [illegible] should go [illegible] the father of the West Side dump. The city can well afford to lose them [illegible]

THE "OFF AND ON" REPUBLICAN ORGAN.

YESTERDAY we adverted to that most interesting subject, the latest flop of the Evening Telegraph, this time from the ranks of "independent" journalism into the ranks of the straight party organs. We expressed surprise at learning from an affidavit filed by the publisher of the Telegraph in a mandamus suit, that his paper "for more than five years past has continuously and uninterruptedly advocated and now advocates, the principles of the Republican party." We had a vague recollection of having heard of the Telegraph as "an independent paper, the organ of the people," and so felt certain that a cog must have slipped somewhere.

And it had. The mystery is explained. In the mandamus [illegible] in the District Court yesterday, the first truthful account of which is given elsewhere in this paper, the head of the Telegraph testified that his paper has not really been "continuously and uninterruptedly Republican," but just "off and on" Republican. He added significantly that it was always Republican at election times. (Election time, gentle reader, is when the bung is knocked out of the barrel.)

Glancing over the file of the Telegraph covering the period following its conversion to the glorious principles of "independence," we find this pleasing sentiment inscribed in heavy letters clear across the top of the first page: "The Evening Telegraph Being Independent Prints All the News." The reader will notice the significance of the phrase "being independent." Of course now that the Telegraph is no longer independent the assumption is that it will not print all the news. A little farther [illegible] another flaming catch line: "The Evening Telegraph Is a Newspaper, Not a Political Organ." This too is interesting for now that it has been officially, judicially and authoritatively determined that the organ of the Republican machine of Colorado Springs, the very plain inference is that it ceases to be a newspaper.

NOT VERY EXPENSIVE AFTER ALL. Isn't that an awful mess? But just think. By dropping its independence and becoming the organ the Telegraph gets to print the official ballot, which at its price is worth about $600. And [illegible] nobody suppose that the evening paper is going to let a little thing like changing its politics stand between it and six fifty? Never! It would turn [illegible] for $6 [illegible] if it couldn't get them [illegible]

But the little hitch which caused [illegible] president and General Manager [illegible] on the witness stand that his paper [illegible] only Republican off and on after he had previously sworn [illegible] that it had been continuously and uninterruptedly Republican for more than five years was not the only interesting feature of this session. [illegible] his declaration that the Evening Telegraph (think of it—the Evening Telegraph!) [illegible] the Republican party. Then up jumps [illegible] with the question: "Mr. Yeager, please tell the court what the principles of the Republican party are to which [illegible]" [illegible] answer: "I—I do not believe I know."

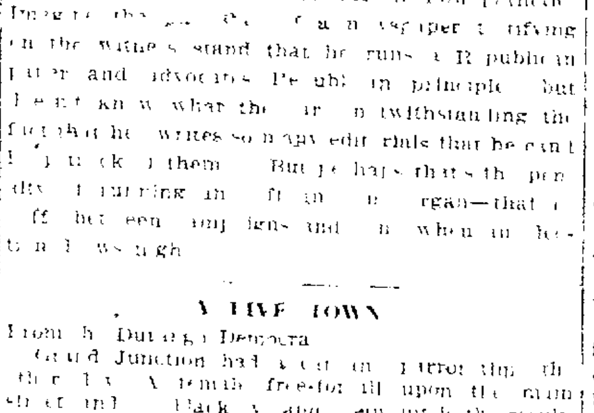

This absence of knowledge [illegible] what constitutes Republican principles [illegible] Strong, who gave his occupation as that of carpenter and who for some time has been employed by the city to dig [illegible] at "Lake Moraine." Mr. Strong was called by the Telegraph [illegible] expert [illegible] Republican [illegible] He declared that the newly appointed organ is the only advocate of genuine Republican principles in this section, but like the publisher of that paper was promptly bowled over by opposing counsel with the question as to what those principles are.

Funny? Not a bit [illegible] how [illegible] newspaper testifying on the witness stand that he runs a Republican paper and advocates Republican principles, but [illegible] know what they are, notwithstanding the fact that he writes so many editorials that he can't [illegible] them. But perhaps that's the [illegible] off between [illegible] and [illegible] when in Rome [illegible]

THE TRICKS OF THE ELECTRIC COMPANY

To the Editor of The Gazette:

The latest trick by which the Electric company [illegible] the people into voting against the [illegible] bond issue [illegible] advertising page of Sunday morning and Monday [illegible] with a small white space [illegible] the municipal lighting system.

If we [illegible] the Electric company's [illegible] knows anything of [illegible] bond issue [illegible] this distributing system will cover [illegible] sixth of the city. Such statements as this [illegible] at the bond issue daily for intelligent people judge [illegible] statements of the company by this test of truth applied to this and we see there is no dependence to be placed on anything they say.

We again ask this remarkable aggregation of [illegible] to read THE ORDINANCE; there is absolutely nothing about a limited area in it. We are to vote on whether we are in favor of the city [illegible] or constructing an electric lighting plant [illegible] that Jacksonville, Fla., a larger city than our own, built its plant for $76,[illegible] which it furnishes all its public lighting, and light for all its citizens at [illegible] per kilowatt. [illegible] reason whatever why Colorado Springs can not do the same. When we are lighting our own city by our own plant we will be pleased to have the Colorado Springs Electric company visit us and we will show them [illegible] the citizens of Colorado Springs [illegible] of their days and [illegible] shall be glad to [illegible] WELL EARNED rest.

[illegible] is an old saying [illegible] would be well [illegible] the truth of this old maxim and they are trying it with splendid success (the Electric company to the contrary notwithstanding). As Mayor Head of Nashville, Tenn., said: "If any one should suggest the turning over of the water system to a private corporation he would very soon be ducked into the river. The time has already come in many cities where the citizens feel as strongly about their electric lighting systems and might say with equal fervor: If any one suggested turning over the city lighting system to a private company he would be very promptly electrocuted."

Nashville's experience is dramatic. Former Mayor James M. Head gives a graphic description of his fight for the people's lights. He fought all the corporate influences of the state to get his bill through the legislature allowing Nashville to sell electric light, heat and power to private consumers and it won by a very close vote. He had asked the electric company to reduce prices. They laughed at him. After acquiring the power for the city to engage in lighting, he again tried to get them to adjust prices. They refused. He began work on the city's plant. By the time the foundation was laid they voluntarily reduced the price of light from 15 cents to 12 cents. Before the plant was completed the private company was making very contract it possibly could for a term of years at 5 AND 6 CENTS PER KILOWATT. When the plant was completed there was about three years of the company's contract with the city unexpired.

After another effort on the part of the mayor the company concluded that the contract with the city did not pay them anything anyway and that they had a demand for all the light and power that their plant could furnish without the public lighting and that the mayor could take over that part of it if he wanted it. So in September 1, 1902, the city took over the lighting of its streets. For the year prior to that the city had paid $49,270 for lighting its streets and public buildings. The year after under public ownership the city furnished more than double the amount of light at a cost of $4[illegible]

Says Mayor Head: "I understand that since my retirement from office the agreement for 5 and 6 cent light has been kept and that the lighting company today (April 1906) is making more money than it did when it charged 18 cents. If the city had never turned a wheel of the plant (costing $1[illegible]) it would more than have paid for itself in three years in the reduction of prices which it obtained for the private consumers of the city. It could afford to keep that plant standing idle and never turn a wheel and it would save to the people the interest on the investment ten times over every year."

The Electric company of Colorado Springs should remember that there are people here who have lived in towns elsewhere, some of them from cities where the electric company alleges that municipal ownership has been a failure. These people have taken pains to inform themselves as to the present state of affairs where they came from and they find (of course) that the whole case has been misrepresented by the company here; that the plants are a success and that the people are more and more strongly in favor of public ownership.

THE ELECTRIC COMPANY'S COURSE

To the Editor of The Gazette:

The Colorado Springs Electric company [illegible] information bureau [illegible] trying to convince the people of Colorado Springs that they [illegible] lacking in intelligence and honesty [illegible] lighting plant [illegible] and other [illegible] we would like to know [illegible] what their distributing plant cost. In fact give us an itemized statement including the cost [illegible] And please do not forget to [illegible] what it is costing for advertising to defeat the municipal lighting ordinance. And please tell us just how much of the stock and bonds are held by people living in Colorado Springs and who they are and how much stock and bonds they own. We want to know just what the ones are who want to use our water system [illegible] We want to know just [illegible] electric lighting in this town and the right to charge just what they please for the light produced by our water system.

The [illegible] of the kings and emperors [illegible] very sure [illegible] the people are [illegible] to govern themselves [illegible] As the company has no [illegible] which [illegible] it buys space in the papers to tell us what [illegible] and when we think how it has worked us in the past and how it is working us now, somehow we can not help thinking perhaps it is half right after all. But we are learning. The company is helping. As it has given us the cost of producing electricity with coal-steam power at 4.9 cents per K. H. and as it gets it at 6 of a cent from the Hydro company, that leaves a clear profit of 3.79 cents just for the use of our water system less what it costs to hold that monopoly. As that is in addition to the profit made when it did not use our water system we see that more than one third the cost to us of our lights is clear profit to the company of the use of our water system.

Now really, doesn't the company think it would be fair and generous or at least just if it would throw off part of our light bills? Perhaps it might not have to spend so much for advertising purposes but we should [illegible] good [illegible] city government each owning its municipal plant uncorrupted by bribing corporations it would feel better for having helped bring that condition about.

[illegible] CITIZEN

Colorado Springs, March 26.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

one of whom was Mr. Yeager, to enunciate the principles of the Republican party. Both admitted, however, that they were unable to tell what the principles of Republicanism are.

Manager Yeager of the Telegraph was the first witness. As he took the oath spectators were struck with the remarkable resemblance in his pose to that published in The Gazette a week ago last Sunday. With right arm uplifted and a look of stern determination on his face, our president and general manager received the oath and majestically took the stand.

On direct examination by his attorney the witness said that he has been in control of the paper for one year and eleven days. The Telegraph he stated is now advocating, has advocated during his management and for the last five years has advocated the principles of the Republican party.

Witness Badly Confused

Attorney Irwin then took the witness on cross examination.

"Did you not at the time you took charge of the Telegraph publish a salutatory to the public?" asked the attorney.

"I did," answered Mr. Yeager.

"What was the wording of this salutatory?" was asked.

"I don't remember the exact wording, having written so many editorials, but it was to the effect that the Telegraph was an independent newspaper."

This answer fixed officially once for all the responsibility for the editorials in the Telegraph.

"How long did you continue to claim to be independent?"

"Until about March 4, 190[illegible]"

"How then can you reconcile the fact that for about one year you displayed in large type an announcement that the Telegraph was an independent newspaper with the fact that the paper has been Republican for the last five years?" thundered the attorney.

"Off and On"

"The Telegraph has not been continuously Republican for five years," admitted the witness.

"Then what did you mean by filing a sworn petition declaring that the Telegraph has for five years continuously advocated Republican principles?" [illegible] the attorney [illegible]

"Well the Telegraph [illegible] Republican off and on [illegible] With [illegible] more [illegible] Republican [illegible] election times."

When Attorney Irwin asked Mr. Yeager what he meant by an independent newspaper the witness replied: [illegible]

He Could Not Tell

"Will you kindly say what the principles of the Republican party are?" [illegible] Mr. Yeager [illegible] could not [illegible] but the court sustained the objection of Attorney Kinsley, ruling that the [illegible] sufficient for the matter in hand.

Attorney Irwin took the position that if Manager Yeager so strongly advocates the principles of the Republican party he ought to [illegible] the same course with the second and [illegible]

Joe Strong, carpenter, who is employed by the water department to [illegible] from the bottom of Lake Moraine, was next placed on the stand as an expert on Republican principles and a judge of the advocacy of these principles by the local newspapers.

Was Too Much for Him

Strong declared that he has for two years a member of the Republican city central committee. Attorney Kinsley asked him which of the two local papers in his opinion advocated the principles of the Republican party.

"The Evening Telegraph," replied the astute expert without a second's hesitation, just as though repeating his carefully learned lesson by rote.

"That is all," said Kinsley.

Attorney Irwin in cross examination asked the witness one question, but it was pregnant with meaning.

"Enumerate the principles of the Republican party," requested the lawyer.

Whether the peat-digger expert faltered at the word "enumerate" or because of the unexpected question which he evidently thought should have been applied only to Mr. Yeager, is not known, but he stammered around nervously fidgeting in the witness chair. He had been brought to court to swear that the Telegraph advocates the principles of the Republican party. Why should they bother him with curious questions as to what those principles are?

Admitted His Ignorance

Meantime Attorney Kinsley interposed another of his numerous objections. The court was evidently about to sustain it when Attorney Irwin rising cried:

"Your honor, the opposing counsel has asked this witness which paper advocates the Republican principles. He has thereby placed the witness at my disposal for information regarding those principles."

"You yourself put the door open for the attorney to do so," answered the judge.

"Yes, your honor," instantly replied Attorney [illegible] the doors open."

Strong was allowed to answer the question but admitted that he did not know what the principles of the Republican party are.

"That is all," said Attorney Irwin and the expert withdrew.

These two were the only witnesses for the Telegraph. Both admitted that they do not know what composes the very principles which they swore on the witness stand the Telegraph advocates. The situation reverses that in which the mother tells the nurse to see what baby is doing and tell him not to do it. The Telegraph is advocating Republican principles—whatever they are.

MacMillan on Stand

City Clerk E. M. MacMillan, the respondent in the case, was put on the stand by Attorney Irwin. He said that he did not regard the Telegraph as advocating Republican principles because of its continued announcements of its independence. National party lines and no petty municipal platforms formulate Republican principles, he said. Mr. MacMillan stated that he decided not to give the advertising to the Telegraph on the advice of City Attorney W. C. [illegible] and that he desired to reach the greatest number of Republican voters [illegible] could not be attained by advertising in the Telegraph.

In his argument for the Telegraph Attorney Kinsley [illegible] entitled to the advertising because it advocates the principles of the Republican party which is in [illegible] providing for publication in a newspaper advocating principles of the party casting the largest number of votes at the preceding state election.

"Money Cuts No Figure"

Attorney Irwin brought up the question of cost. He showed that the Gazette is charging only 60 cents per inch for the first insertion and 40 cents for each subsequent insertion, while the Telegraph will charge 81 cents per inch for the first insertion and 18 cents for each subsequent insertion. The Telegraph bases its charges on the regular legal rate, while as the Gazette under the contract made with the Gazette the bill will approximate $[illegible] and the Telegraph will tack on an additional $[illegible] making a total of about $[illegible]

The attitude of the king organ [illegible] constituents is shown in a remark by Attorney Kinsley, who interrupted Attorney Irwin during his argument to inform the lawyer, the court and the others present that "the question of money cuts no figure in this case."

At the conclusion of arguments on both sides, Judge Morris announced that he would order a mandamus to issue.

HOLBROOK & PERKINS

A DESTRUCTIVE STORM

WIND REACHED VELOCITY OF 78 MILES AN HOUR.

Electric Company the Heaviest Sufferer—Many Trees and Windows Broken.

Damage to the extent of several thousand dollars was caused by the equinoctial wind storm which raged in this city from early morning until noon yesterday. During the forenoon the wind reached a velocity of 78 miles an hour, according to the records of the aerometer at Colorado college.

Several narrow escapes from what might have been disastrous fires are reported. The Colorado Springs Electric company suffered a loss of from $1,000 to $1,500 in demolished poles, broken wires, interrupted service and extra labor. Throughout the storm the full force of linemen with many extras were kept at work guying poles and repairing damaged wires. While engaged in this work at the top of a [illegible] Hendrickson, foreman of a crew of linemen, was blown to the ground, 20 feet below and badly hurt, though no bones were broken. He pluckily continued at his duty of directing the men and by 2 o'clock in the afternoon all the lines were in good order once more except that to the poor farm, which was blown almost entirely down and was not completely repaired at a late hour last night.

Fire Quickly Extinguished.

At the height of the storm a fire was started near sub-station A on Cucharas street, caused by the breaking of the 6,600-volt line which connects with the power plant. Fortunately a gang of men under Foreman Kennedy was close at hand and the company's own fire apparatus was quickly brought into service. The fire department also responded to a call in quick order and for a few minutes the electric company's stables, stored with hay and grain, was in serious danger. The work of the electric men in soaking the surrounding buildings with water proved effective and after a brisk fight the flames were extinguished.

Many Poles Broken.

The worst damage to the electric lines was from sub-station A to the main plant. The wind struck this line broadside and along Cascade avenue many of the poles were demolished. As fast as possible guy ropes were brought into service and the remaining poles strengthened so as to resist the storm. In the meantime a gang was at work repairing the damaged poles and by indefatigable efforts on the part of Manager [illegible] Bache, who worked along with the men, the power was again turned on early in the afternoon. The other [illegible] the [illegible] plant and the [illegible] mills from the Hydro plant where the lines were less exposed to the force of the wind remained unbroken, and the large mills to the west of the city continued operations without interruption.

No fatalities from the storm are reported, but several pedestrians had narrow escapes from injury. Mrs. Mary J. Morrison, an elderly woman, was blown to the sidewalk on East Pike's Peak avenue and received a severe shaking up. She was carried into the Elk hotel where it was found that her injuries were not serious. In many parts of the city trees were blown to the ground or stripped of their branches and shingles and boards from roofs and buildings were scattered over the streets.

Fire Department Busy.

In the business district many windows were broken and signs torn from their fastenings. [illegible] considerable danger to pedestrians. The fire department had a busy day. Not less than six alarms were turned in, all of which, however, were either false or of little significance. Owing to the intense dryness and high wind extra precautions were taken by both the fire and police departments as the danger of a fire getting started was fully recognized. Mail carriers were forced to carry their routes without wheels and as a consequence the delivery was in some instances much delayed.

Forest Fires Raging.

One of the worst results of the storm is the impetus given to the forest fires that have been burning for some time in the mountains southwest of the city and along the line of the Short Line road. These were fanned into intensity by the gale and a large new belt of fire was started close to St. Peter's dome about 15 miles from Colorado Springs and within a mile or two of the Short Line track. Traffic Manager W. A. Matlock, who is at Cripple Creek, reported last night that the tracks are in no danger.

Southeast of the city a large area has been swept by fire that caught in the prairie grass and, according to reports, a large area has been devastated, but so far no reports have been received of damage to buildings or other property. According to one report several thousand acres of land have been swept over by the flames and every vestige of last year's vegetation has been destroyed.

While the telephone and street car service were both badly hampered and a great deal of hardship and extra work devolved on the employes, the service in both cases was kept in commission. The telephone company reported slight damage, which has been repaired. The repair car of the street railway company was busy throughout the day, but by strenuous efforts the cars on all lines were kept running though schedule time was a thing impossible.

FOUL PLAY SUSPECTED

DEATH OF MRS. H. A. TRASK TO BE INVESTIGATED.

Ohmer Seward, Brother of Dead Woman, Leaves for Chicago to Probe Mysterious Affair.

As a result of the death in Chicago, Ill., yesterday morning of Mrs. Harlan A. Trask, Ohmer Seward, brother of the dead woman, left Colorado Springs for that city an hour after receiving word of her death, and will investigate the circumstances surrounding the affair. Mrs. F. B. Seward, mother of Mrs. Trask, is already in Chicago, and will aid her son in the investigation.

Mrs. Trask was formerly Mrs. Robbins, wife of R. G. Robbins, a prominent business man of this city. The couple were divorced here eight months ago, Mrs. Robbins marrying Dr. Harlan A. Trask in Chicago two weeks afterward. Because of the unsavory record of Dr. Trask in Colorado Springs, together with the fact that his wife, when divorced from Mr. Robbins received $7,000 in cash, foul play is suspected.

Mrs. Trask was in perfect health when she left Colorado Springs and was apparently well until two weeks ago. Her mother was called to her bedside three days ago, and yesterday morning sent a telegram announcing her daughter's death as the result of an operation. Ohmer Seward immediately left this city for Chicago to investigate.

In addition to her mother and brother Austin Seward, another brother, and a 12-year-old son, survive Mrs. Trask. Mrs. Seward and [illegible] with Mr. Robbins.

Dr. Trask acquired considerable notoriety more than two years ago as a result of his arrest on complaint of Mrs. Ada Brown, who charged him with embezzling several thousand dollars worth of jewels and cash left in his charge while she was his patient in a hospital. Trask was convicted and sentenced to from five to seven years in the penitentiary. He secured a writ of supersedeas from the supreme court after eighteen months' confinement in the county jail. Meanwhile Trask's first wife secured a divorce from him, later marrying a local business man.

Trask escaped a second trial through the disappearance of Mrs. Brown, the prosecuting witness. He again began the practice of surgery in this city. A few months later he left here for Chicago. His furniture was attached for many debts, but a Chicago physician had meanwhile taken possession of Trask's office, and informed the sheriff's office that he had traded his Chicago office and practice for that of Trask in this city. Shortly afterward Mrs. Robbins left for Chicago, the marriage of the couple being announced two weeks later.

MUSICAL EVENT OF WEEK

Miss Painter to Give Farewell Concert Tomorrow Evening.

Musicians and admirers of Miss Nellie M. Painter are anticipating with keen pleasure the musical event of the week, namely, the Nellie M. Painter farewell benefit concert to be given at the First M. E. church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Not only does this concert promise good things artistically, but it presents the opportunity of assisting this popular young contralto toward the building up of a career.

Musicians, critics and artists, among the latter Frau Schumann-Heink and Madame Johanna Gadski, both of whom heard Miss Painter sing, predict a brilliant future for her, and this concert has been arranged with the view of increasing the fund already raised to make possible the plan to place Miss Painter with the best teachers and where she will be surrounded by an elevating musical atmosphere.

The assistants at this concert will be Mrs. Robert S. Ritchie, violinist; John S. Moffett, cellist, and William Schmidt, pianist—all artists of known reputation.

A Voice From The Stomach

A Bloodless Fight Between a Tablet and a Habit—The Tablet Wins.

At the age of 22 Clarence had good digestion. He had gastric juice that could dissolve doughnuts and turn apple-skins into good blood corpuscles.

At the age of 24 he began to be profuse about the waist and lean backwards. He also began to cultivate several chins. In his new-found pride he began to think it his duty to gorge himself on everything—the good and the bad—and apparent tests on appetite—and every good thing is abused.

His pictures showed that he took on weight after he put his collar on.

At the age of 26 Clarence married and went to boarding. On top of all this, he attended oyster suppers and wine dinners, which reduced the size of his collar from 16½ to 15. With still abiding faith in the strength of his stomach he gulped his meals, and chewed them afterwards.

At the age of 28 Clarence began to hear an inward voice a warning from the stomach. After each meal, he would feel—bloated—and belching became a habit.

He began to be a light eater—and a heavy thinker. He tried to think out a cure, for now he would sit down at his meals absolutely disgusted at the thought or sight of anything to eat.

He would sit down at his meals without the trace of an appetite, just because it was time to eat.

He would often feel a gnawing, unsatisfied "still-hungry" feeling in his stomach, even after he was through eating, whether his meal was well cooked or not.

And he suffered a good many other things with his stomach that he could not explain but that made him grouchy, miserable, out-o'-sorts and generally sour on everybody and everything.

Finally he read an account, something like this, about the truly wonderful results obtained from Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in all cases of stomach trouble, dyspepsia, and so on. He bought a 50c box at the drug store, and took the whole box. When he started, he had little faith—and less appetite. When he finished he had absolute faith—and more appetite, and more good cheer. Things began to taste different and better to him.

Now he has no more dyspepsia, no more indigestion, no more loss of appetite, brashy irritation, burning sensation, heartburn, nausea, eructations, bad memory, or loss of vim and vigor.

Remember, one ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest for you 3,000 grains of food, just as it did for Clarence.

This relieves your stomach of the work of digesting until your stomach can get strong and healthy again. Your stomach has been overworked and abused. It's fagged out. It needs a rest.

Let Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do the work of your stomach. You will be surprised how lusciously good everything will taste to you.

Heed the call of the stomach now! There's a world of good cheer in one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets—at any drug store, 50c.

The proposed municipal distributing system will only cover the area shown in the white space. The rest of the city, as far as the city's system is concerned, will be in darkness. The city can not afford to light its own streets in the favored district. How, then, can it afford to give better rates for commercial lighting? By the way, what ARE the proposed municipal rates?

'THAT' THE PEOPLE MAY KNOW

The Telegraph said yesterday: "The company intimates that the passage of the municipal plant ordinance will mean higher rates for those sections (outside the proposed favored district) which will have to rely on the Electric Company for light, and higher rates also for the favored district proposed to be lighted by the municipal plant."

This company does not intend to "intimate" IN ANY WAY that the rates will be advanced IN ANY PART OF THE CITY after election. THE LIGHTING RATES WILL NOT BE ADVANCED, and rumors to the contrary are false. This company has never advanced rates. We will CONTINUE our policy of REDUCING RATES in accordance with good business. It is NOT GOOD BUSINESS for us to keep rates up arbitrarily, nor is it good business for us to reduce them below a point where the company would be in a financially dangerous position.

At the present moment it is folly to discuss a reduction of rates. That question is wholly dependent upon the results of the coming election. We CAN promise, however, that RATES WILL NOT ADVANCE, whatever the vote may be.

We see no reason why the people of this city should vote to bond themselves AS A WHOLE to furnish light for only ONE-SIXTH of the city—the light to be furnished for PRIVATE USE ONLY. The proposed bonds are NOT, according to the Lyon-Armstrong report, to be used to BUILD AN ELECTRIC GENERATING PLANT, but to construct a distributing system only—a pole line, with its accessories, covering only a FAVORED SIXTH OF THE CITY.

If the vote is in favor of this unwise move we will be in a position where we MUST MAINTAIN the present rates in order to provide a fund to meet future competition. It is not certain that a municipal system will be built at once, for a vote for the bond issue is a vote to EMPOWER ANY FIVE MEMBERS OF ANY FUTURE COUNCIL to come around and ATTEMPT to "shake down" the company to prevent competition. IS THAT THE WAY TO KEEP THIS COMPANY OUT OF POLITICS?

A vote for the bond issue means that this company must, IN SELF-DEFENSE, play politics as never before. It means that rates CAN NOT BE REDUCED while that sword of Damocles hangs over us, ready to drop at any moment and force us into a rate war. It means that the very people who want lower rates will force us to maintain the present rates to provide a "slush fund" to pay for their folly.

A vote AGAINST the bond issue is a vote to keep the company out of politics and is a vote to put us in a position to REDUCE RATES AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

STRIKE ON ISABELLA

BIG ORE BODY FOUND IN VIRGIN TERRITORY.

Details Are Lacking, but It Is Reported Body Is Seven Feet Wide. Assaying From $30 to $40.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, March 26.—It is reported that Lewis and associates operating on the Isabella property between the tenth and eleventh levels through the main or Lee shaft, have uncovered a magnificent body of ore in virgin territory. The management has acknowledged that a strike has been made but so far has failed to give out any details.

From a reliable source it is learned that the ore body is from five to seven feet wide, and in places it bulges to even greater width. The assays taken indicate that the ore will give returns in carload lots of from $30 to $40 in gold to the ton. There are any number of knife blade seams in the shoot that carry much higher values. The shoot is now being developed and it is reported that it has been opened up for a distance of from 20 to 25 feet.

TAKES BLOCK ON THE AJAX

S. McDonald Secures Lease Recently Held by Mulvaney.

CRIPPLE CREEK, March 26.—Sam McDonald and associates are now working the block of ground on the Ajax property, which produced in two years over $100,000 for Lessee Mulvaney. Mr. Mulvaney's lease expired some two or three months ago when the company started to operate it on its own account. The streak was narrow and the company failed to make any money and it was recently turned over to Mr. McDonald, who is doing fairly well. The last month that Mr. Mulvaney operated the lease he shipped out ten cars of ore and had one of the best months during his tenure.

BATTLE MOUNTAIN IS ACTIVE

Development Work in Progress on Dillon Property—Several Veins Encountered in Monument.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, March 26.—Pherson brothers, who are operating on several different levels of the Dillon property of the Granite company on Battle mountain, are shipping from two to three cars of ore a week. The ore is a little better in value lately and is running from $20 to $30 in gold to the ton. Several machine drills are employed on ore and in doing development work.

J. W. Price, the well-known lessee who is operating on the Monument property adjoining, through the Dillon shaft, is doing a large amount of development work. Several veins have been cut, but values sufficient to warrant shipping have not as yet been encountered. Mr. Price, however, is driving a crosscut to cut the intersection of several veins which are believed to form a junction in the Monument claim, which is now owned and controlled by the Granite company, which has an immense acreage on this slope of famous Battle mountain. The Granite company on its own account is making a big tonnage every month of much better than average grade of ore.

WILL ADVERTISE FOR BIDS

Deep Drainage Tunnel Committee Has Decided to Let Contract for Driving the Deep Bore.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, March 26.—The roadway to Gatch park tunnel site has been completed, the excavating and grading at the tunned site is finished and the bore has been driven into the side of the mountain for a short distance, perhaps 30 or 40 feet and the deep drainage tunnel committee has now decided that it will advertise for bids to drive the big bore for certain distances or for the full 15,000 feet. This means that the drainage tunnel is a certainty. Already the mines and companies that contributed have paid the first assessment of ten per cent, amounting to about $42,000. By the middle of April the bore will be well under way and it will not be so very long until water will be gushing forth and the mines of the camp will be enabled to operate at great depth, some 700 feet below the present working depth.

LAMBRIGHT REGULAR SHIPPE

Average Grade of Ore Remains the Same, About $50 to the Ton.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, March 26.—The Lambright lease on the Beacon Hill-Ajax claim of the El Paso Consolidated company, is shipping out every month between 900 and 1,000 tons of ore and the average value remains the same, which is $50 in gold to the ton. The ore is all being mined north of the Chance of '94 shaft at a depth of 375 feet, where the ore is being stoped from four to seven feet wide. This lease still has about one year to run. The company operating is a close corporation and pays dividends every month ranging from $12,000 to $20,000. This is now one of the very best leases in the Cripple Creek district.

NEW POSTOFFICE BUILDING

Department at Washington Asks for Information.

Information on a large number of questions relative to the building of the new postoffice in Colorado Springs has been furnished to the postal officials at Washington by Postmaster Alex. Strachan of this city. The department sent a number of blanks to be filled out in which numerous questions were asked about the sewerage connections, water mains, electric light service, street measurements and other matters needed by the engineers in making their plans and estimates. Beyond this the local postoffice authorities have learned nothing definite on the plans for the new building.

"CYCLONE" BLOOD CLEANER.

For those readers of this paper who have any form of blood disorders, who want new, rich blood and plenty of it, try this:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. Any good prescription pharmacy can supply the ingredients at small cost.

This is the prescription which when made up is called the "Vegetable Treatment" by others, the "Cyclone Blood Purifier." It certainly does wonders for some people who are sickly, weak and out of sorts, and is known to relieve serious, long-standing cases of rheumatism and chronic backache quickly.

Make some up and try it.

A RECORD BREAKER

We were simply swamped with orders yesterday for

Nevada Gold King Stock

At the Opening Price of 1½c a Share

KEEP YOUR EYE ON THE TOP FLAG

It was our intention to sell only 50,000 shares at this price, but orders were fired at us from all directions at such a rapid pace that before we could even figure out where we stood 95,000 shares of the stock had been subscribed for. The orders came by wire—by telephone from all parts of the state and the local demand was something enormous. In order not to disappoint anyone we had to scale down all large orders as we went along, otherwise nearly 300,000 shares would have been sold.

It was one of the most successful mining stock sales ever pulled off in Colorado Springs, or anywhere else for that matter.

Orders are still pouring in. We are obliged to call a halt. Hereafter we shall sell only a limited number of shares of this stock, instead of limiting the time of sale at any special price.

County of El Paso,)
State of Colorado) ss.

BE IT REMEMBERED, that on this 26th day of March, A. D. 1907, personally appeared before me, the undersigned, a Notary Public in and for the County and State aforesaid, F. A. Morath, who under oath says that he is President of The Morath Investment Company and as such officer of said Company is thoroughly familiar with all transactions covering the sale of stock in THE NEVADA GOLD KING MINING COMPANY; said F. A. Morath states that on the 25th day of March, A. D. 1907 his firm sold 95,000 shares of the capital stock of said Company at 1½ cents a share.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 26th day of March, A. D. 1907. WILLIAM M. SWIFT, Notary Public.
My Commission Expires June 11th, 1907.
(SEAL)
Notary seal attached.

We hereby certify that the above is a true and correct copy of the original affidavit made by Mr. Morath, in our possession.
THE COLORADO SPRINGS GAZETTE CO.

We will sell only 25,000 shares at 2c and 11,000 shares of this has already been subscribed or spoken for. We know that we will not be able to begin to fill the flood of orders that will come in at 2c, therefore any one who bought stock through us at 1½ cents a share and paid for it yesterday or today can bring the stock to our office before 10 o'clock tomorrow morning and we will cheerfully pay them 2c a share for it, and no questions asked.

The company really can not afford to sell much of this stock under 5c a share and we did not anticipate such an enormous sale; otherwise we should have limited the block of stock to be sold at the opening price. $5 profit on a $15 investment over night is not a very small one. Therefore many of our customers should take advantage of our generous offer.

In order that you may be convinced that we really did sell 95,000 shares of this stock at 1½ cents a share, all of which we stand ready to buy back at 2c, we have made an affidavit to substantiate our statement, a copy of which is attached to this advertisement.

Remember, only 25,000 shares at 2 cents. Look out for the next advance. Keep your eye on the upper flag. Watch Nevada Gold King stock soar. Buy it anywhere up to 10c and you will make money.

STOCKS RALLY SHARPLY

MARKED RENEWAL OF CONFIDENCE IN WALL STREET.

London Stocks Remain Low but New York Shorts Are Covering and Tone Improves.

NEW YORK, March 26.—A complete reversal of sentiment from the depression of yesterday marked today's trading in the stock market. Although London prices were lower this morning, the New York exchange soon after the opening showed a much stronger tone than for some time past and quotations were advanced sharply on very heavy buying. The bears began to retreat on rumors that further government assistance for the money market was imminent and when the formal announcement came from Washington that such assistance was to be given, the shorts began to cover up their outstanding contracts. At the same time there was a renewal of purchases for investment.

The result was an upward turn to prices that was almost as sensational as was the sharp decline of yesterday. The trading was wild and excited as the bears sought to cover and before noon stocks were selling at from 1 to 6 points higher than the low points of the early trading.

Accompanying the upward movement was an industriously circulated rumor that an enormous pool had been formed by the greatest banking houses in Wall Street to support prices. This report, which lacked confirmation, and which was rather deprecated by conservative brokerage firms, made it appear that $50,000,000 had been subscribed by banking interests to buy stocks with the object of putting a stop to the recent declines. Nothing whatever developed to give substance to this story but it was not without effect on the trading except for occasional recessions, due to profit taking, the strong tone continued to the close and the final prices throughout the list were at substantial advances from yesterday's closing quotations.

Bonds were distinctly weak in spite of the rally in stocks and a large volume to cover. The undisturbed condition of foreign markets today in spite of yesterday's wild market here was a surprise to the speculators for a further fall in prices. London's confidence in the successful completion of the stock market settlement without disastrous consequences was reported to be unimpaired. Berlin also was said to feel satisfied that arrangements had been made to assure the success of the April settlements.

It was announced during the course of the stock exchange session that the treasury department had determined to deposit $12,000,000 of the customs revenues in New York banks as well as to prepay April interest on the 2 per cents and on the 4 per cents of 1907. The total amount of interest due in April on those issues will amount to upwards of $7,000,000. At the same time reports received from Washington showed that the treasury's offer to accept savings bank investment bonds to secure deposits in the banks in substitution for government fours of 1907 which should be offered for redemption under the treasury's proposal was having a decidedly stimulating effect on the offerings of these bonds for redemption.

One notable effect of these relief measures for the money market was a rebound in the foreign exchange market, which had shown further early declines from yesterday's low level. The extreme advances reached to over 7 points in most of the Harriman and Hill stocks, to 6 or over in St. Paul, Canadian Pacific and Smelting, to 5 1-2 in Reading and L. & N., and from 2 to 4 in a large number of the most active stocks. The extreme gains were not all held and the closing tone of the market was rather irregular.

Total sales par value $3,500,000.

U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

Furnished by Otis & Hough, bankers and brokers.

WHEAT IS IN DEMAND

FIRM CABLES AND BUG DAMAGE STRENGTHEN GRAIN.

Hot Weather and Reports of Damage Favor the Bulls.—Provisions Stronger.

CHICAGO, March 26.—Wheat was in active demand at the opening because of firm cables, numerous green bug reports and a continuance of hot weather in the southwest, especially in Kansas. For a time offerings were comparatively light, but at the end of the first half hour prices eased off somewhat on realizing by local longs. The easy feeling developed later into weakness because of reported rain in western Kansas. The wet weather reports were later denied and the market closed firm on renewed buying by shorts and commission houses. May wheat opened ⅜c to ½c higher at 76c to 76⅛c, sold off to 75½c, and closed at 75⅜c. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 121,000 bushels.

Corn was firm because of a scarcity in offerings. Receiving houses reported that country purchases were very small and this strengthened the market. Another bullish factor was an advance of ¼ to ⅜ pence at Liverpool. The close was firm. May corn opened ⅛@⅜c higher at 46⅛c, sold between 45⅞@46⅜c, and closed at 46⅛c. Local receipts were 365 cars, with none of contract grade.

Trading in oats was very light, but the tone was strong. The principal buying was by cash houses. May opened ⅛@¼c higher at 41⅜c, sold between 41⅜@41⅞c, and closed at 41⅞c. Local receipts were 172 cars.

Provisions were strong on a lively demand by shorts and packers. A decline of 5c to 7½c in the price of live hogs seemed to have no effect on traders. At the close May pork was up 20c at $15.65. Lard was up 10c at $8.70. Ribs were 10@12½c higher at $8.50.
